Jeffersonian Democrats Determined to Meet

The toninase of the evening is of special interest to every member; therefore, make it your tensiness to be there at the appointed hour.

M. Shana Lan, President, M. Shana Lan, President, M. Shana Lan, President, M. Shana Lan, President, offering & Wilself, Secretary,

"What is the special business to come before the club Tuesday night?" seked a reporter for Twe Hanan of a promineut head democrat has night.

That any neything about it, said he, softly, as he abandoned the remnant of a Key West eggs, and smiled tenderly.

We re going to take up a collection to have a Christman present for the "We re going to take up a collection to hely a Christman present for the referees," and the Jeffersonian laughed a hourse, discordant, Midway Philance laugh. "If there is anything left over we shall purchase a new set of wheels for the Hon. Den. M. Dickinson." Then the fifth district wheel horse paused for a moment to smile andibly at his own lettle scholet.

"What are you going to buy the referees?" interestedly asked the re-

That's the devil of it," responded the is all networsts of honest government farthfully administered. They've got everything there is in sight, and we can't think of anything they'd probably

We may have a little business usesting before the collection is taken, however." he continued, "and if it isn't the must interesting session ever held, I shall miss my guess. What's coming up? Great Jerusalem, what isn't coming up? If the boys turn out, as they expeet to now, you'll see more ginger to the square inch than you ever saw in a spice factory. Most of us hanker to know where we are at, and incidentally learn what we are on earth for. There are scores of us here in Virand. Rapids who have hastled year after year for the success of the democrat party. We have contributed freely of our time, and a mighty sight more freely of our money. What has it profited us? Not a bisseted thing. Ve have been turned down ourselves, and our candidates have been turned down to make room for the profeges of the referees. If we haven't a kick coming, I don't know who have

Only one appointment from the fifth district has been made this year, which has net the approval of the voting and working working democrats of the district. Judge Morse was sent to Glasgow, and everybody was pleased. He sacrificed a good thing to run on a ticket that main't the ghost of a show of being elected. The powers that be were under obligations to do the right thing by him. and they dared not do otherwise.

"Hut look at the rest of them. There's Andy Fyfs. Andy's a good fellow and all that; but what did he ever do for the democrat party? Nothing, besides accepting office. When he was clerk of the superior court he sent out 10,000 copies of the Congressional Record containing Heary George's "Protection and Free Trade." I don't suppose a dozen of the persons who received the pampaints everyout them. Andy Shaffer has done more for the party in one cam-paign than Fyfe ever did. But then Andy is a good democrat and his ap-pointment was not so had as some of

"Take General Smith for an example. Half the democrate in town didn't know he belonged to the party. W. B. Weston was chased out of the fight. Mr. Weston's democracy may have been open to question, but he's a second Andrew south. Uncle John Farr was a democret when it was hardly safe to be a democrat in Michigan. He went to state conventions when no other democrat in the city would go. How were his services uwarded? Right in the neck as sount.

"Following General Smith's appointment came this appointment of L A. Rs. Van Dugteren as deputy. That didn't set very well, but when he resigned, and Smith, a life-long and avowed repub-lican, was restreed to the office—if that isn't enough to make a man sick, I don't know what is,

Everybealy knows the secret of Dr. Harriston's appointment as consul to Milion, and there isn't any use in kicking your the fraces about that But we count like to see all the old-time demo-Estein F. The has lost his grip, and I. M. Woston hase to scrap of influence. N. A. Fletcher and Charles Beader have appointed these electrons as leaders of the scand Hapada democrats and are helpour divide the pie for the hungry. When affeirs got to this stage, it's about time to call the turn. There is only one office left, the postmastership, and I guess some of the rost of us will take a hand in that appearsment, if we can.

A serred meeting of the Jefferson club was called for last Tuesday night, but the aer-consessent of that fact in Two linears seared the leaders and they falled to appear. Temorrow nights meeting is a sure thing, and unless sur-face imitentions are deceptive a report of the presentings will furnish some

LOST ON THE RACINE. low a Practical Joker Received a Merited Shock.

Mer. ted Shock.

Fred J. Adams, a reporter for the Democrat, is a practical joker at a has the saviable quality of laughing as heartily when he takes as when he gives. Last Saturday night every newspaper workingman in town was distracted by the uninterrupted jangle of the telephone bell, followed by inquiries as to the truth of the rumor concerning the laws of the City of Racine. Along toward midnight it struck Fred that it would be a good joke to ring up the city editor from police headquarters and ask him the stereotyped question. So he hied him to Lieutenant Rurley's inner sanctum and called up "21, 3 rings," the city editor's telephone number.

"Hello," said Fred in a semi-military whisper, "is this Mr. Stuart, city editor."
"It is," responded Mr. Stuart in a husky voice.

"This is Major Long," mischievously

"This is Major Long, mischievously volunteered the reporter.

"Aren't you out a little late, Major?" inquired the city editor.

"Yes, but," cautiously, "I heard of that steamer disaster and couldn't sleep until I learned the facts. Have you heard anything?"

heard anything?"

"Yes," replied the man at the other end of the phone, who by this time recognized the voice. "We just received a despatch saying she had been lost with all on board."

"Great Heavens!" exclaimed Adams, now thoroughly excited. "Anybody from Grand Rapids?"

"Yes, Major," replied the city editor in a mournful tone. "One of the victims is a Grand Rapids' reporter."

"For God sake, who is it?" eagerly inquired the practical joker.

"Fred J. Adams of The Democrat."

There was a thump and a thud, and

HE WON'T VACATE.

Warden Parsell of Ionia Declares He Will Fight.

E. Parsell, the belligerent warden of the lonia reformatory, was a guest in Sweet's yesterday, on his way home from the world's fair. Mr. Parsell is still holding the fort, and announces his intention of remaining in office until the supreme court requests him to get himself otherwhere. "I was appointed by the old board of prison managers October 7, 1891, and was to hold my office for four years," said he last night. "The new legislature created a new board, but it neglected to repeal the act under it neglected to repeal the act under which I was appointed. My term of office does not expire until 1866, and I office does not expire until 1866, and I see no reason why I should leave the prison before that time, unless the supreme court says so. The present board, under the new law, has appointed Otis Fuller of St. Johns warden; but naturally, I have refused to surrender my office. He has begun que warranted proceedings against me, and I expect the supreme court will render a decision in my favor. Competent legal advisors assure me that the new law is not constitutional, and it is in accordance with this opinion that I refused to vacate."

GOT OUT AND SHOVELED

How Chicago Excursionists Whited Away the Night at St. Joe. The C. & W. M. Chicago train, due here at 10:10 Saturday night, reached here at 8:20 yesterday morning. The passengers spent the night in the cars at St. Joseph, and were a fatigued and disorganized body of excursionists. The half dozen prosecutions in police court of persons owning dogs who avoided taking out licenses, has had a powerful effect on dog owners all over the city. They are coming in droves to the city clerk's office now, and 126 licenses have been issued in the past three days, netting the city $135. There are now bit licensed camines in the city. Last year there were but 301, and in 1851 there were 508. In 1851 during Louis Henry's reign as poundmaster there were more than 700 licenses issued. At the present rate it will be but a few At the present rate it will be but a few days before the 700 mark will be reached. Burglarized in Daylight.

Julius Otterbein's saloon at No. 124 Monroe street was burglarized yester-day afternoon between 2 and 4 o'clock and small change to the amount of 85 was taken from the money drawer. Patroiman Brown saw through the front glass that a door leading from the ball stood ajar, and upon investigation found that it had been secured by a bolt, but had been forced open. Nothing besides the money drawer had been disturbed. Otherheis was notified and said he was in the colour of 2 o'clork and everything sase all right when Lileft it. The burglary was committed in daylight, and no clue to the this was he been found. The detectives are of the opinion that the work was done by boys.

Lily lodge, Knights of Pythins, are troubled by a rival society which seeks to hold possession of their lodge room. It is a colony of binck hornets and they make it exceedingly lively for the gallant knights. They have their use, however, for a good healthy hornet is an excellent substitute for the goat at initiation ceremonies.

Collided With a Car.

Mrs. Mary Husted of Olive Center drove into the city last evening to visit her brother, Leon Centilla of No. 53 State street, and upon arriving at the west end of Pearl street bridge collided with an electric car. She was injured about her hips, and one wheel of her carriage was smashed. She was taken to the home of her brother in the city ambulance at 9:30.

The World's Fair!

Take it all in all the world is fair. That is, its judgmen of are pretty surely just. No doubt is has formed many incorrect condusions from the time the caravans of Col abus appeared off the shores of San S.I. valor to the present year of cel-bration, but be cited unquestioned. It has after comparative tests, given its awards to Hosteiter's Stomach Bitters for officacy in cases of ma-larial, rheumatic and kidney disorder, dyslarial, rheumatic and kidney disorder, dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation, nervousness and debility. Among "positive facts without any doubt" this vergist deserves a prominent place. NIKITA Some persons have said to mo, "If Nikita is a great EXPENSIVE artist, how can you afford to bring her here and sell tickets for 50 and 75 cents?" I reply that I don't expect to make any money tickets for 50 and 75 cents?" I reply that I don't expect to make any money on her engagement, that Lockerby hall contains plenty of seats, and I want to give everybody an opportunity to hear a singer who is superior to Patti. Nikita always receives 6500 a night. If it were not for the hard times, and the fact that I wanted to fill the hall on the night of the opening, I should have charged $1.00 and perhaps more, for the concert tomerrow evening, which will be one of the best ever given in Crand Rapids. Isn't it better to give the people a dollar entertainment for 50 cents than to inflict upon them a fifty cent show and flict upon them a fifty cent show and charge them a dollar for it? My policy is to furnish first-class entertainments at reasonable prices, and I believe all will see the advisability of doing so this year. Be sure and hear Nikita tomorrow night in Lockerby hall. CHARLES S. EMERSON, Manager.
